

Curriculum feedback from Students of 2020-21 Batch

PG

1. Number of respondents = 68
2. The students are well motivated to pursue higher education, and feel that the curriculum provides good support to instill confidence in the students in the following:
 - a) To face competitive examination,
 - b) Syllabus structure across the semesters,
 - c) Support of curriculum towards enhancing critical,
 - d) Analytical and holistic thinking, and
 - e) Curriculum in solving local issues.
3. Curriculum needs improvement in the following:
 - a) Encouragement to involve in Research activity,
 - b) Balance between Theory and Practical knowledge, and
 - c) Support of curriculum for employment and entrepreneurship.

UG

1. Number of respondents = 323
2. The students are well motivated to pursue higher education and research
3. Students curriculum needs to improve in the following:
 - a) Support of curriculum to instill confidence in the students to face competitive examination,
 - b) The balance between Theory and Practical knowledge,
 - c) Syllabus structure across the semesters,
 - d) Support of curriculum towards enhancing critical, analytical and holistic thinking, and
 - e) The support of curriculum for employment and entrepreneurship.