a) Ring out the old, ring in the new,
 Ring, happy bells, across the snow:
 The year is going, let him go;
 Ring out the false, ring in the true.

b) _____ am I proved too weak
 To stand alone, yet strong enough to bear
 Such leaners on my shoulder ? Poor to think,
 Yet rich enough to sympathise with thought ?

c) Wert thou my enemy, O thou my friend,
 How wouldst thou worse, I wonder, than thou dost Defeat, thwart me ?

d) If there's no hatred in a mind
 Assault and battery of the wind
 Can never tear the linnet from the leaf.

e) At what the god had wrought
 To please her son, the strong
 Iron-hearted man-slaying Achilles
 Who would not live long.

The State has 2,731 government schools that were established more than hundred years ago. Their condition today, however, belies Karnataka's commitment to education then at a time when India was still fighting for Independence. A majority of the schools are in dire need of a facelift as well as an upgrade in their infrastructure. Many of these buildings' roofs have developed cracks, and the dilapidated classrooms are not usable during the monsoons. A sum of 5 crore was allocated to improve a hundred schools and the government order was issued recently. However, when divided up, each government school will get an average of 5 lakh, which is not enough. The money allocated to improve these heritage buildings has been criticised by heritage experts and architects.
